President's Message

John D. Kelly IV, MD

I am humbled to serve as President of the Eastern Orthopedic Association, a most unique and collegial regional Orthopaedic Society. The EOA distinguishes itself from other organizations in several ways.

EOA is very family friendly and dedicates considerable energy in ensuring that all scientific and educational offerings end in timely fashion so that attendees spend ample time with loved ones. Spouses of members have considerable input in meeting locale and format so that leisure time is ensured for all.

Secondly, EOA is a truly ‘resident centric’ organization with a panoply of resident travel grants and awards. Many academic careers have been catalyzed by a well-received EOA resident presentation. The Eastern Orthopedic Education Foundation (EOEF) is financially strong and will help ensure quality programs and resident funding for decades to come.

Finally, the collegiality one experiences as a member of EOA is invaluable. I, for one, have made innumerable precious friendships only by virtue of my involvement with this special organization.

Please make every effort to attend our 50th anniversary meeting Oct 16-19 at the storied Palm Beach Breakers. Anil Ranawat has been hard at work crafting a world class program replete with renowned faculty. Our meeting format affords ample time for attendees to interact with speakers and learn both diagnostic and surgical ‘pearls.’ Attendees will be treated to many ‘rapid fire’ sessions where concise presentations facilitate efficient learning.

L. Scott Levin will serve as the Presidential Guest Speaker and will convey to the audience thoughts on the leadership and team building skills necessary to execute the first successful bilateral hand transplant. Kevin Reilly will deliver the Howard Steel Lecture and will recount his story on resilience and overcoming adversity. Once a strapping 235 Lb. NFL linebacker who could bench press 400 lbs, Mr. Reilly’s Pro football career ended suddenly when cancer was discovered in his left shoulder. Radical surgery, including amputation of his left arm and resection of four ribs, did not stop him from leading a fulfilling and successful life.

My lovely wife Marie continues to work in earnest on a memorable social program which includes sensational tours of Palm Beach museums, opportunities for fishing, golf, tennis, a Segway tour, and access to beholding local marine life.

Our beloved past president and Founder, Howard H Steel, will be commemorated with a ‘Jersey Style’ Founders’ Dinner complete with ‘Jersey Style’ music and the ingenious comedy of ‘New Jersey Bad Boy’ Mike Marino.

EOA is thriving due to the commitment of its board of directors. John McConnell (as usual) has secured incredible exhibitor support, Sam Labib has served honorably and responsibly as treasurer and Scott Boden continues to serve as an exemplary managing director. Josh Baumfeld has set high aspirational goals for membership, Mike Ast continues to impress with his technical prowess in ensuring proficient ‘e communication’ to members and Cynthia Emory has overseen a very ‘user friendly’ SAE vehicle members may use to fulfill re certification requirements.

It is no surprise that membership retention is high in this ‘family style’ and most unique organization.

Please join the fun in October and make some new friends!

Sincerely

John D. Kelly IV, MD
President, Eastern Orthopaedic Association
Kevin Reilly was born in Wilmington, Delaware. From early childhood, he was recognized as an exceptional athlete. Kevin’s natural leadership skills and athletic abilities secured him a full athletic scholarship to Villanova University. In 1973, the World Champion Miami Dolphins drafted Kevin in the seventh round. Later that year, he returned to his hometown team of the Philadelphia Eagles, serving as captain of the special teams.

In 1975, Kevin’s NFL career was cut short when he was diagnosed with a rare desmoid tumor. To halt the spread of cancer, Kevin’s left arm, most of his shoulder and four ribs were amputated. He was told he’d never be able to tie his shoes or a tie, much less play sports. He didn’t listen.

After retiring from the NFL, Kevin worked as a Senior Executive in Sales and Marketing at the Xerox Corporation. A qualified peer visitor at the Walter Reed National Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C., he offers counseling to veteran amputees.

Kevin hosts the pre-game and post-game radio show for all Philadelphia Eagles games live on 94.1 WYSP-FM, Sports Radio 610WIP-AM and WDEI. He never gave up sports altogether – he is an avid runner and golfer, two of the many things people told him would be impossible after his surgery.

In addition to his announcing duties, Kevin is a Board member with the Easter Seals nonprofit charitable organization. He lends his talents to numerous charities and is an auctioneer for over a dozen auctions for various charities each year. After discovering how to overcome the challenges in his life, he works as a motivational speaker, delivering his inspirational message to audiences.
