PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Richard M. Wilk, MD

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

I am incredibly honored and proud to serve as the 56th President of the Eastern Orthopaedic Association, and am excited to invite you to attend this year's Annual Meeting at the spectacular (and recently-renovated) Ritz-Carlton Naples Beach Resort in Naples, FL, October 15th – 18th, 2025.

Our 2025 Program Chair, Adam Rana, MD and the members of the Program Committee have created a wonderful scientific program showcasing the latest clinical, basic science and technological topics, along with the expertise of our invited speakers as well as the fellows, residents and students who will present their ground-breaking research projects.

This year's Presidential Guest Speaker is William Healy, MD, Emeritus Chair of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at Lahey Hospital Center, as well as Past President of the Knee Society and former Treasurer of the AAOS. We look forward to Dr. Healy's presentation, titled "Thoughts on Teaching," which will be as entertaining as it is educational.

Our Howard Steele Lecture will be presented by Ami Vitale, a renowned National Geographic photographer, filmmaker and author who has traveled the planet capturing images of people, wildlife and the habitats we share. Ami will take us on a visual journey highlighting the delicate balance between humanity and the world around us.

With the backdrop of Naples and its gorgeous surroundings, my wife, Susan and the EOA's Social Committee have put together an exciting agenda of activities that will allow everyone to experience the beauty and variety that south FL has to offer, including morning, afternoon and evening events for your whole family to enjoy.

I would like to thank our industry partners who support the educational mission of the EOA through their sponsorship of our Annual Meeting. Our Exhibit Hall will be filled with companies committed to helping the EOA's members and attendees explore the latest orthopaedic instruments, implants, durable medical equipment and technology to help us take care of our patients.

I'm excited to announce that in addition to being a Platinum Sponsor for our Meeting, we have received an incredibly generous educational grant from Arthrex, and on Friday afternoon we've arranged for a cadaver lab experience at their state-of-the-art learning facility (just around the corner from the resort). Please be sure to register for the Meeting soon so you can reserve your spot at one of the lab stations to elevate your arthroscopic skills to the next level.

Over the past 18 years since its first Meeting at the beautiful Fairmont Empress hotel on Victoria Island, Susan and I have found that the EOA sets a high bar with its combination of a robust scientific program and family-oriented social activities, offered in an intimate, relaxed atmosphere. We are proud to create opportunities for attendees, faculty and their families to connect while sharing knowledge and forming friendships. I encourage you to check out our Annual Meeting website for more details, and to reserve your room at the Ritz-Carlton Naples Beach Resort before the room block sells out.

Susan and I hope to see you in Naples!

With Kindest regards,

Richard Wilk
